

Partner with SAGE to develop your Economic History case

Series Editors

Nimish Adhia, Ph.D., Manhattanville College

Michael J. Douma, Ph.D., Georgetown University

SAGE Publishing continues to grow its teaching case collection, SAGE Business Cases, across the business and management spectrum while incorporating perspectives from a variety of disciplines. The Economic History series within SAGE Business Cases debuted in January 2019, and aims to help students contextualize the current economic landscape by exploring the evolution of trade, currency, and regulation. As we prepare for the next annual release, we are particularly interested in cases that discuss financial crises, black markets, and regions outside the US.

SAGE is pleased to offer case authors:

- Double-blind peer review of your case and teaching notes
- A thorough editorial process, working to develop your ideas and prepare cases for successful publication
- Freedom to include your students in the case research and writing process
- Copyright in your name and final PDF for ease of use in your classroom
- Payment when your case is published
- An international audience for your work
