Leadership

SAGE Video streaming collections are developed in partnership with leading academics, societies, and practitioners to deliver cutting-edge research-oriented video within the social sciences.

Each collection includes a breadth of video types and lengths to support students such as case studies, tutorials, interviews with researchers and practitioners, documentaries, footage of real-life professional contexts, and more.

Building on SAGE's established strength in publishing on Leadership, this new SAGE Video collection will serve as an interdisciplinary streaming video resource, representing the field of Leadership as it is researched and taught in a number of key subject areas, but especially: Business & Management, Education, Health Sciences, Psychology, Political Science, and Communication Studies.

This multi-use collection will feature leading SAGE authors and contributors, including best-selling textbook author Peter G. Northouse, PhD, as well as numerous, original scenario-based case study films from different organizational contexts to provide expertise on and insights into organizational contexts and real-life dimensions with 65% exclusive leadership video content. Overall, it's designed to model the key course needs of leadership programs through a variety of video types, such as video cases, in practice, tutorials, and documentaries.
