Counseling & Psychotherapy

SAGE Video streaming collections, for library purchase, are developed in partnership with leading academics, societies and practitioners, including many of SAGE's own authors and academic partners, to deliver cutting-edge pedagogical and research-oriented video within the social sciences.

Each collection includes a breadth of video types and lengths to support students of all levels such as case studies, tutorials, interviews with leading researchers, documentaries, footage of real-life professional contexts, quick reference definitions and more.

Drawing upon a vast network of SAGE's authors and editors, the Counseling and Psychotherapy collection includes how-to tutorials from Mick Cooper on Empathy, interviews with Jerrold Lee Shapiro on Existential Psychotherapy and John McLeod on Evidence-Based Practice, and much more.

It features extensive demonstrations of clients and practitioners in real-life professional contexts designed to illustrate best practice and provide an essential insight for students to master the skills and techniques they need to succeed.

Editorially selected films from the Counselling and Psychotherapy Central Awarding Body and Psychotherapy Networker complete this collection.
