Bringing teaching, learning and research to life

Counseling & Psychotherapy

SAGE Video streaming collections, for library purchase, are developed in partnership with leading academics, societies, and practitioners, to deliver cutting-edge research-oriented video within the social sciences.

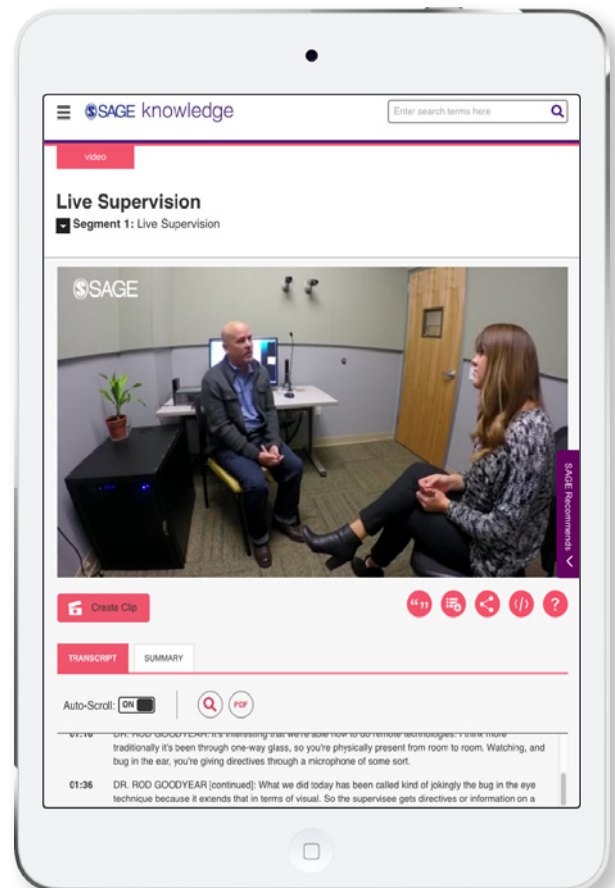

Each collection includes a breadth of video types and lengths to support students such as case studies, tutorials, interviews with leading researchers, documentaries, footage of real-life professional contexts, quick reference definitions, and more.

Drawing on a vast and international network of SAGE's own authors and editors, material includes more than 20 hours of "how-to" tutorials across the discipline, from CBT to gestalt therapy, from psychodynamic to existential counseling, plus more than 60 hours of "In Practice" films and multiple interviews with leading academics discussing research in the field. As much as 69% of the content in this collection is exclusive to SAGE.

In addition, discover authoritative licensed content, including films from CPCAB (Counselling and Psychotherapy Central Awarding Body) and the University of South Wales providing instructional-style tutorials, observational footage, panel discussions between academic experts, and documentaries, all designed to give students insight to master the skills and techniques they need to succeed.

More than 130 hours and 415 videos on these topics:

- Counseling Research Methods
- Counseling Setting/Client Groups
- Theory and Approaches
- Counseling Skills
- Professional Issues
