Bringing teaching, learning and research to life

Politics & International Relations

SAGE Video streaming collections, for library purchase, are developed in partnership with leading academics, societies, and practitioners, including many of SAGE's own authors and academic partners, to deliver cutting-edge research-oriented video within the social sciences.

Each collection includes a breadth of video types and lengths to support students of all levels, such as case studies, tutorials, interviews with leading researchers, documentaries, footage of real-life professional contexts, quick reference definitions, and more.

The Politics & International Relations Collection supports students and researchers at all levels. With 73% of the content exclusive to SAGE, this collection includes the following:

- Interviews with renowned experts on subjects including international migration, political philosophy, and the international relations of China
- Tutorials on a wide range of key topics, such as the American presidency and policy analysis
- Case study videos on real-world examples, such as the NATO intervention in Kosovo or the Islamic State
- "In Practice" films that show politics in action, including UN committees, state senators, human rights activists, lobbyists, campaign managers, members of Parliament, and more
- Seminal documentaries from BBC Worldwide and footage of famous political speeches from, among others, Martin Luther King Jr. and John F. Kennedy

More than 130 hours and 310 videos on these topics:

- American Government and Politics
