Bringing teaching, learning and research to life

Psychology

SAGE Video streaming collections, for library purchase, are developed in partnership with leading academics, societies, and practitioners, to deliver cutting-edge research-oriented video within the social sciences.

Each collection includes a breadth of video types and lengths to support students such as case studies, tutorials, interviews with leading researchers, documentaries, footage of real-life professional contexts, quick reference definitions, and more.

The Psychology Collection supports students and researchers at all levels. With 67% of the content exclusive to SAGE, this collection includes the following:

- Leading academics from a multitude of different universities delivering a range of video types, to fit course and research needs
- Videos of clinical practitioners delivering “In Practice” sessions with patients, both real and role-play
- Other professional psychologists, such as those in forensic psychology, sports psychology, educational psychology, and clinical neuropsychology
- Documentary footage from providers such as BBC Worldwide, featuring films examining societal issues with absolute relevance today, linked directly to course needs
- Archival and historical footage stretching back more than 50 years from the Center for the History of Psychology
